

Stuart, Fla. – Congressman Tom Rooney (R-Fla.) announced today the opening of satellite offices in Wellington and Sebring. The Wellington office will be located in the Village Community Center and the Sebring office is located in the Highlands County Government Center.

“The opening of my two new satellite offices in Wellington and Sebring is an important step towards providing the best possible services for my constituents,” said Rooney. “My staff will be available at the new offices to provide assistance with federal agencies and programs ranging from Social Security and Medicare to veterans benefits. It is my hope to provide the residents of Highlands County and Western Palm Beach County with the absolute best resources and services to help with any problems they may have with a federal agency.”
